

2011 Outstanding Directors

Gerald Greenwald

Founding Principal, Greenbriar Equity Group

Retired Chairman and CEO, UAL

Jerry Greenwald is founding Principal of Greenbriar Equity Group, investors in the global transportation industry. He served as Chairman and CEO of UAL from 1994 to 1999 and held various executive positions with Chrysler Corporation from 1979 to 1990, including Vice Chairman and Chairman of Chrysler Motors. In 1990, Greenwald was selected to serve as CEO of United Employee Acquisition Corporation in connection with the proposed employee acquisition of UAL. From 1991 to 1992, he was a Managing Director of Dillon Read & Co. Greenwald began his career at Ford Motor Company. He was previously a director of Calpine, Internet Brands, Honeywell, Reynolds Metals, Sentigen and Time Warner.

DIRECTOR: Aetna