

Judy Haberkorn

Retired President, Consumer Sales and Service, Verizon Communications

Following a 32 year career in telecommunications, Judy Haberkorn retired in 2000 as President of Consumer Sales and Service at Verizon Communications. In addition to her current corporate directorships, Haberkorn served on the boards of Enesco prior to its sale and post-bankruptcy MCI. She earned a BA in International Relations from Briarcliff College and completed the Advanced Management Program at the Harvard Business School.

DIRECTOR: Armstrong World Industries, Computer Sciences Corporation, ExpressJet Holdings