

Speaker

Outstanding
Director, 2007

Judith Richards
Hope

Distinguished Visitor from Practice,

*Georgetown
University Law
Center*

*Retired Partner,
Paul Hastings,
Janofsky & Walker
LLP*

*Director: General
Mills, Union
Pacific*

Judith Richards Hope is Distinguished Visitor from Practice and Adjunct Professor of Law at Georgetown University Law Center. She has held faculty appointments at Harvard Law School, the University of Richmond, and Pepperdine University. Hope practiced law from 1981 through 2004 as a partner in and senior advisor to Paul Hastings. She served as Vice Chairman of President Reagan's Commission on Organized Crime, and as Associate Director of the White House Domestic Council during President Ford's Administration. From 1989 to 2000 Hope served on the seven-person Harvard Corporation. Hope is a graduate of Wellesley College and Harvard Law School.