

August A. Busch III

Retired Chairman and CEO,
Anheuser-Busch

August A. Busch III began his career at Anheuser-Busch in 1957 and worked in virtually every department throughout the brewery before succeeding his father as President in 1974 and CEO in 1975. He was elected Chairman in 1977. Busch retired from his position as President and CEO in 2002 and Chairman in 2006. He was named one of America's "Most Admired CEOs" by Industry Week, and one of the nation's top CEOs by BusinessWeek. He was educated at the University of Arizona and as a brewmaster at the Siebel Institute of Technology in Chicago. He is an Advisory Member of the Board of Grupo Modelo, SAB de CV.

DIRECTOR: Anheuser-Busch, AT&T, Emerson Electric